General Data Protection Regulation 2018

Eden Christian Trust

The General Data Protection Regulation came into force on 25 May 2018 and Eden Christian Trust is committed to operating within it and protecting your personal information. The Regulation requires that we identify our legal basis for the processing of personal data. We have one main basis: that the holding and processing of data about members is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Trust. Your privacy is important to us, and we want to communicate with Eden Christian Trust members in a way which has their consent, and which is in line with UK law on data protection. As a result of a change in UK law, we now need your consent to how we contact you. Please fill in the contact details overleaf by way of confirmation:

By signing this form you are confirming that you are consenting to the Eden Christian Trust, Edenbridge holding and processing your personal data for the following purposes (please tick the boxes where you grant consent):-

I consent to the ECT contacting me by phone text email post.

To keep me informed about news, events, activities and services from Eden Christian Trust (note you can unsubscribe at any time)

To use photographic images without personal details for the purpose of fund raising and promotion of the ECT Youth group.

Signed: _____ Dated: _____

You can grant consent to all the purposes; one of the purposes or none of the purposes. Where you do not grant consent we will not be able to use your personal data; (so for example we may not be able to let you know about forthcoming events or activities); except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm. You can find out more about how we use your data from our "Privacy Notice" which is available from our website or by request.

You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting the ECT Youth Worker at Eden Christian Trust, Model farm, Main road Crockham hill, TN8 6SR or ect.youthworker@gmail.com. Please note that all processing of your personal data will cease once you have withdrawn from membership, other than where this is required by law, but this will not affect any personal data that has already been processed prior to this point.
